1. Introduction: About Pilsen

Plzeň (Czech pronunciation: [ˈpl̩.zɛɲ]), also called Pilsen in English and German, is a city in western Bohemia in the Czech Republic, it was founded in 1295 by King Wenceslaus II of Bohemia. Pilsen is situated about 90 kilometers (56 miles) west from Prague (the Capital City), and it is the fourth most populous city in the Czech Republic, the central European Country. Read how to get easily to Pilsen here ››

Pilsen lies at the confluence of 4 rivers: Úhlava, Úslava, Radbuza and Mže. They stream to the fifth river called Berounka, which continues from Plzeň to Prague.

Plzeň made a huge progress during last years. It is amazing to observe how the former industrial city has changed its face. Plzeň used to be a grey and sad city during communist time with mostly people working in heavy machinery: Škoda Works.

After the Velvet Revolution and a fall of communism in 1989 many houses were returned to their original owners, who started to reconstruct their properties, the municipality takes care about Pilsen monuments, sights, parks, streets and public transport and Plzeň is getting more and more visitors each year. Read more about Pilsen here ››

Plzeň is especially famous for its beer (Pilsner Urquell), exported worldwide, and the visit of Pilsner Urquell Brewery is also the most popular Pilsen attraction.

But Plzeň can offer its visitors much more than just the beer. The long and rich history is visible on every step. We bring you an overview of main Pilsen attractions for adults and kids, which you should not miss during your stay in Plzeň.
2. Main tourist attractions in Pilsen

All of the historical sightseeing places are located within one area of the Pilsen city center. Therefore, all the attractions can be visited on foot.

1. Cathedral of St. Bartholomew

The Gothic St. Bartholomew’s Cathedral dominates Republic Square, the main square in Pilsen. The church tower is the tallest tower (102.26 m) in the Czech Republic and it offers its visitors an amazing view to the Pilsen Region by the nice weather.

Opening hours of the Church:
From April to September: Wednesday – Saturday, 10.00 am-4:00 pm
From October to December: Wednesday – Friday, 10.00 am-4:00 pm
The tower is open daily 10 am – 6 pm, the entry fee is 2 EUR for adults and 1 EUR for kids (6-15 years old).

2. The Little Angel

Touch it and whisper a wish. The little angel is placed on small grid at the rear side of the St. Bartholomew’s Cathedral. You will recognize it very easily among others golden angels: the magical one is smaller and lighter as everybody touches it.

3. Marian (Plaque) Column

St. Mary’s plague column with the Baroque replica of Pilsen Madonna on the top is situated in the north-west part of the Republic Square and it dates back to 1681. It was commissioned by the Plzeň burgesses as an expression of thanks that, in 1680, the city had been saved from the plague.

The statues on the balustrade and plinth date to 1714 and represent St. Bartholomew, St. Wenceslas, St. Frantisek Xaversky, St. Ruzena, St. Antonin, St. Roch, St. Barbora and St. Florian.
4. Renaissance City Hall
The Renaissance city hall was built according to plans drawn by an Italian architect, Giovanni de Statio, between 1554 and 1559, and ranks among the most beautiful town halls in Bohemia. You can find a 3D model of the city’s historical center in the vestibule.
